

Partage Vanier

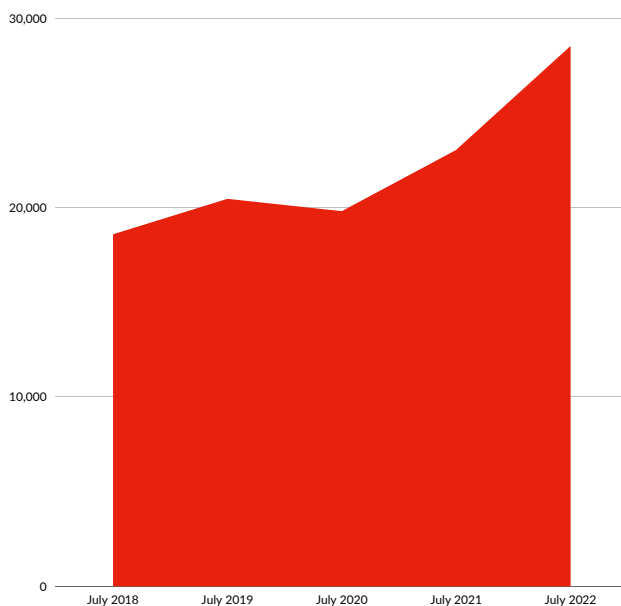

Ottawa Food Bank

Partage Vanier is the local food bank located at 161 Marier Avenue. Their mission statement is to gather and distribute quality food, other necessities of life and resources to individuals and families in need of Vanier.

Learn more about Partage Vanier

Number of visits per month A snapshot of July 2018 - 2022

In order to create a more equitable future for everyone in Ottawa, we need leaders who will prioritize ending food insecurity.

In July 2018, the Ottawa Food Bank and its network reported 18,553 visits to community and emergency food banks across the city. In July 2022, there were 28,449.

This represents an increase in need of 54%.

We are extremely concerned about the impacts of poverty on our community - a combination of low income, precarious work and housing, and unaffordability has resulted in a food insecurity crisis in Ottawa.

This data only includes 27 community food banks and does not include food cupboards, meal programs, After4 programs, or multi-service programs.*

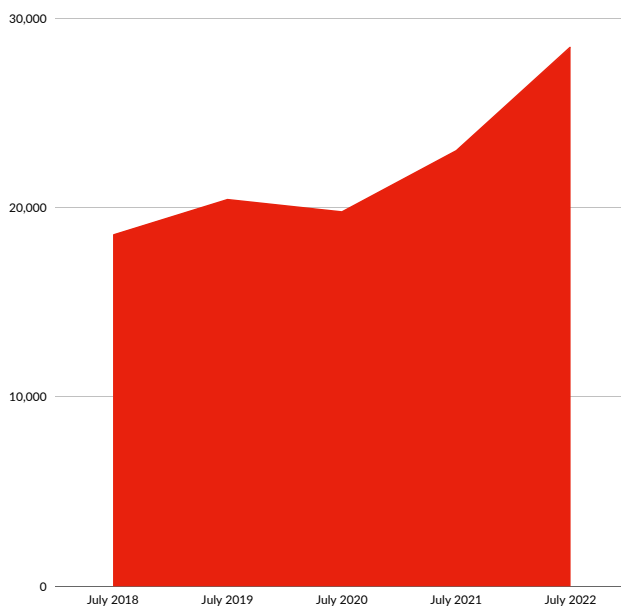

Ottawa Food Bank

Lowertown Community House

The Lowertown Community House has been offering a range of social and community services to individuals and families residing in Lowertown East and West since 1970. Their Community House provides educational, recreational and social programs that meet the needs of the residents of Lowertown East. The Community House also offers a physical space for residents that facilitates the identification of community needs, encourages the social integration of its members and promotes harmony and greater community participation.

Learn more about Lowertown Community House

Number of visits per month A snapshot of July 2018 - 2022

In order to create a more equitable future for everyone in Ottawa, we need leaders who will prioritize ending food insecurity.

In July 2018, the Ottawa Food Bank and its network reported 18,553 visits to community and emergency food banks across the city. In July 2022, there were 28,449.

This represents an increase in need of 54%.

We are extremely concerned about the impacts of poverty on our community - a combination of low income, precarious work and housing, and unaffordability has resulted in a food insecurity crisis in Ottawa.

This data only includes 27 community food banks and does not include food cupboards, meal programs, After4 programs, or multi-service programs.*

St. Joseph's Parish

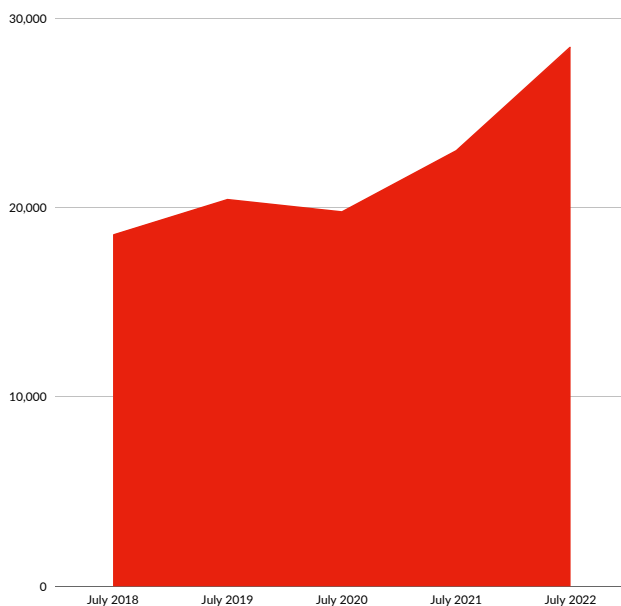

Ottawa Food Bank

This is a meal and food sharing ministry. They serve a breakfast from 9:00 am – 11:00am Monday to Friday and a supper from 4:00pm – 5:00 pm, Tuesday through Friday to an average of 100 people per day.

Learn more about St. Joseph's Parish

Number of visits per month A snapshot of July 2018 - 2022

In order to create a more equitable future for everyone in Ottawa, we need leaders who will prioritize ending food insecurity.

In July 2018, the Ottawa Food Bank and its network reported 18,553 visits to community and emergency food banks across the city. In July 2022, there were 28,449.

This represents an increase in need of 54%.

We are extremely concerned about the impacts of poverty on our community - a combination of low income, precarious work and housing, and unaffordability has resulted in a food insecurity crisis in Ottawa.

This data only includes 27 community food banks and does not include food cupboards, meal programs, After4 programs, or multi-service programs.*